

[341st PCC Meeting]

[10.10.2016]

Minutes of the 341st Meeting of the Portobello Community Council held on 10th October 2016.

Present: Paul Lambie, Mark Cameron, Elaine Murray, Mary Campbell, Colin Cuthbert, Lee Kindness, Geoff Lynn, Donald Bloxham, Madeline Begg, Esther Gray, Sean Watters, Peter Bradley (Brightons and Rosefield Residents' Association), Tara McCarthy (Brunstane Primary School Parent Council), Frazer McNaughton (Duddingston Primary School Parent Council).

Apologies: Miranda Hurst, Justin Kenrick (Friends of Bellfield), Onyema Ibe (Towerbank Parent Council), Cllr David Walker.

In Attendance: Cllr Maureen Child, Cllr Mike Bridgman, and members of the public.

341.1 Welcome from the Returning Officer

Cllr Maureen Child welcomed everyone to the meeting.

341.2 Election Results (Details of Elected and Nominated Members)

Cllr Child confirmed the outcome of the election, with 12 nominees for the 14 elected positions, and 5 nominees for the 7 group representative places. As the number of nominees did not exceed the available places, all were duly elected. Cllr Child also noted that two further groups had sought to register a nominee after the deadline and that their applications were being processed for possible inclusion on the Community Council.

341.3 Election of Office Bearers

After discussion it was agreed that the previous Office Bearers continue in that function on an interim basis. It was noted that the issue could be revisited at any time and that in any event Office Bearers were required to be elected at each year's AGM, the next being due in May or June.

341.4 Standing Items/outstanding items of business

Sean Watters outlined outstanding items from previous meetings but noted that no action was required prior the meeting at the end of October.

341.5 AOB

A PCC representative was required for the Neighbourhood Partnership and Mary Campbell volunteered.
